

Annual Report Card

Results that Matter

With your support WJI is delivering high quality, results-oriented programs that are helping Guatemala's most marginalized women. Through WJI's empowerment programs, Mayan women and girls are transforming their lives by breaking the cycle of violence and inequality.

We are pleased to share with you our significant achievements over the past year.

Our Mission

WJI empowers indigenous Guatemalan women and girls to address gender inequality and improve their lives through access to legal services, rights education, and gender-based violence prevention.

How We Do It

Your generous donations account for 33% of our contributions and 93% of our budget is spent directly on programs.

CONTRIBUTIONS

2015 Grant Awards

United Nations Trust Fund to End Violence Against Women

WJI received a three-year grant from the United Nations to support our innovative work to ensure Mayan women and girls can live a life free from violence. WJI was one of 33 grantees selected from 1,715 applicants.

Central America & Mexico Youth Fund (CAMY Fund)

WJI was one of four regional grantees to receive a grant from the CAMY Fund to support our work developing community solutions for eradicating child marriage.

Thank you!

In 2015 more than 125 Individuals, 8 Businesses and 7 Foundations invested in our work. With your support, we are expanding our programs and reaching more women at risk.
